Benefits of Bulk SMS in Marketing

Bulk SMS Services as a marketing tool offer several distinct advantages over other media like TV, radio, magazines, newspapers and internet.

- SMS reaches users instantly without being too intrusive like a phone call.
- It can be delivered to people irrespective of location and time. Even if the phone is switched off, the SMS is received the moment the phone is switched on.
- You can be sure that the message through SMS will reach the user, irrespective of whether they choose to read it or not. With e-mail, your promotion may end up in the spam folder.
- People carry mobile phones everywhere they go, means, faster & quicker visibility over Tv or other advertising medium.
- Bulk SMS keeps you in touch with your regular customers in a more personalized way.
- It is easier for people to act upon received SMS immediately. For instance, users can reply or call to the given contact number specified in the original message.
- You can collect feedback instantly using missed call services if they are interested, thereby you have a more accurate idea of the success of your marketing strategy.
- With Bulk SMS, you don't have to laboriously send messages to every recipient. You can send messages to millions of people at once.
- You do not require any special infrastructure or expensive technology to implement send SMS. Its pay as you go.
- Bulk SMS services are much cheaper than advertising in TV or Radio for the same or even more amount of reach.
